JOHN KENRICK PRESENTS...

Tuesday, April 14

1:30pm

Annie

50 Years of
"Tomorrow"

How did a 1930s comic strip about a little girl, a billionaire and a dog inspire the biggest hit Broadway musical of 1976? And what has kept this show a worldwide favorite for half a century? John Kenrick shares a lifetime of personal memories of this musical, with great performance clips from the original cast and other memorable productions.

CASABLANCA

Accidental Masterpiece

The screenwriters, director and stars all wanted to be working on other projects. How were these unwilling talents combined to create one of the most beloved films of all time? How did Hitler help turn this movie into a still-powerful attack on the evils of fascism? And how did "As Time Goes By" become the film's unintended theme song and a popular classic? A joyous look back at the making of one Hollywood's most quotable hits.

Tuesday, June 9

1:30pm

ERROL FLYNN

Adventure, Stardom & Scandal

This handsome Australian rascal lived life to the fullest both on and off screen until his dark side caught up with him. What made him Hollywood's greatest swashbuckling star? Facilitator: Esther Fendrick

The JCC Women's Discussion Group is designed for women seeking meaningful daytime learning, interaction and stimulating conversation in a relaxed setting with new and old friends.

DISCUSSION DATES:

Thursday, April 30, 2026 @ 11AM - Yom HaShoah/Holocaust Remembrance Day:

Earlier this month we commemorated Yom HaShoah. Ceremonies were held around the nation and the world, including in our community at the JCC. Why is this important? What is the significance of "bearing witness"? How do we balance universal lessons with the unique Jewish experience when we commemorate Yom HaShoah? What is the significance of Yom HaShoah to you? Let's discuss.

Thursday, May 28, 2026 @ 11AM - Empowering Ourselves and Each Other:

Empowerment is a key concept that underlies every successful personal change effort and gives us the best chance of achieving our goals. Every one of us has encountered disempowering experiences. What makes the difference between letting these events defeat us and being able to put them in perspective and move forward? Let's discuss our own experiences with empowerment and how we have been able to empower others.

Thursday June 25, 2026 @ 11AM - Juneteenth: On June 19, 1865, enslaved African Americans in Texas were told that they were free. Also known as "Freedom Day", June 19th commemorates the end of slavery in the United States. What do you know about June 19th? Was the significance of this date known to you prior to it becoming a holiday in 2021? Do the events of Juneteenth (1865) relate to the racial inequality still experienced today? Let's discuss.

This program is co-sponsored by The Jewish Federation in the Heart of New Jersey.
